Central Catholic Parent and Student Agreement for iPad Use 2018-2019

iPad Program Guidelines:

- Keep your iPad in a secure area when not in use.
- Know where your iPad is at all times.
- Do not lend your iPad to other individuals.
- Do not attempt to guess the password of another student's iPad or lock any iPad.
- Fully charge your iPad battery daily.
- Keep food and beverages away from your iPad.
- Do not disassemble any part of your iPad, "jailbreak" it, or attempt any repairs.
- Protect your iPad by carrying it in only the school-issued case.
- Do not use your iPad to engage in cheating, plagiarism, or in any way to gain an unfair academic advantage.
- Do not attempt to access another student's account, engage in cyberbullying, or possess/distribute inappropriate materials.
- Do not install VPNs, pirated apps, unauthorized app stores, or other software designed to circumvent iPad policies or web filtering.
- Use your iPad in ways that are appropriate, educational, and meet Central Catholic expectations.
- Understand that your iPad is subject to inspection at any time without notice.
- Do not place stickers or any marks on your iPad.
- Do not deface the Central Catholic identification sticker on any iPad.
- Keep your iPad, case, and power cord in good working condition.
- Take your iPad to the Library during the next school day if it is damaged; bring a check for $50 to cover the deductible for repairs.
- File a police or fire report in case of theft, vandalism, and other acts covered by insurance that occur outside the purview of Central Catholic. For the first incident, students will pay half the cost of replacement (approximately $200). Further incidents of loss during the current academic year will be the responsibility of the student.

I understand and agree to the policies and stipulations set forth in the Central Catholic iPad Program 2018-2019 Policy, Procedures, and Information Guide and the Central Catholic Parent and Student Agreement for iPad Use.
